

ALEX WHALEN

DJ | REMIXER | PRODUCER

STILL CHASING THE PERFECT BEAT

Over his 30+ years in the dance music industry, Alex has held down residencies at legendary clubs like Washington DC's Buzz, San Francisco's Spundae, and Boston's Avalon; managed Deep Dish's Yoshitoshi Shop and Yoshitoshi.com; appeared on numerous syndicated radio shows, including John Digweed's Transitions and Thump Radio's terrestrial and satellite shows; hosted more than 250 episodes of his Good People Better Rise Up! podcast; toured extensively as both a solo artist and with his long-time studio-mate Dave Ralph; produced dozens of original tracks and remixes; managed multiple record labels and venues... and... you get the idea.

When COVID hit, Alex turned his attention to realizing his dream of building a new production studio deep in the mountains of Colorado. PHDJE Studios sits on the outskirts of the highest elevation town in North America and just a few miles down the road from the Moly Mines of Climax Colorado. Along with several of his long-time sonic partners, he's formed the Bootycorn Sound System, a DJing and remix collective determined to bring the fun and the funk to dancefloors worldwide. And last but certainly not least, together with his production partner Micke, he is the co-founder of MK2 Artist Management, a full-service agency representing some of the most talented artists in the industry.
